FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Dec. 18, 2018

Sixteen LCTI students place among top 3 at FBLA event
They qualified to compete at the state leadership conference this spring.

Students from the Administrative Office Technology/Accounting, Computer & Networking Technology and Web Design/Web Programming programs scored top 3 finishes in eight categories at the Region 28 Leadership Conference on Friday (Dec. 14, 2018) to secure berths in the state event, to be held April 8-10 in Hershey, Pennsylvania.

The Administrative Office Technology/Accounting student qualifiers are:

Word Processing
- First Place: Elissa Vogel, William Allen High School
- Third Place: Alexis Mordaunt, Southern Lehigh High School

Spreadsheet Applications
- Third Place: Tyler Morgan, Parkland High School

The Computer & Networking Technology student qualifiers are:

Computer Problem Solving
- First Place: Gage Moughan, Parkland High School
- Second Place: Aiden Stroup, Parkland High School
- Third Place: Lon Frey, Northwestern Lehigh High School

Help Desk
- Third Place: Angelia Segarra, William Allen High School

Introduction to Information Technology
- First Place: Gabriel Kinnon, Northwestern Lehigh High School
• Second Place: Kellan Jones, Salisbury High School
• Third Place: Nathan Ellan, Northern Lehigh High School

Network Design

• Second Place (Team Event): Antonio Smith, Parkland High School & Pandora Sanders, Whitehall High School

Networking Concepts

• First Place: Noah Myers, Northwestern Lehigh High School
• Second Place: Justin Andrews, Whitehall High School

The Web Design/Web Programming student qualifiers are:

Graphic Design

• Second Place (Team Event): Tyler Benson, Whitehall High School, Zach Bolzau, Catasauqua High School & Jasias Peña, William Allen High School

Also, Morgan and Shane Graefe, a Parkland High School student in the Administrative Office Technology/Accounting program, were named Region 28 Who’s Who for their leadership as FBLA officers, past competition performances and chapter fundraising.

Congratulations to LCTI's state qualifiers and their teachers! Kudos to the 22 students who competed in the Region 28 Leadership Conference.

The FBLA-PBL, or Future Business Leaders of America-Phi Beta Lambda, is one of seven Career & Technical Student Organizations at LCTI. Administrative Office Technology/Accounting instructor Elaine Beam serves as the chapter advisor.

###

MEDIA CONTACT
Precious Petty
Public Relations Coordinator
610-799-1450
pettyp@lcti.org

About Lehigh Career & Technical Institute
Lehigh Career & Technical Institute is Pennsylvania’s largest career and technical school. Founded in 1971, LCTI each year provides more than 45 skills-based programs of study, as well as academic instruction for about 2,700 students from 10 of Lehigh County’s public high schools. LCTI also offers industry-relevant training and credentials for adults working in the Lehigh Valley and beyond. The school’s state-of-the-art facilities encompass 450,000 square feet on a 47-acre campus in the Schnecksville section of North Whitehall Township. Learn more at lcti.org.