LCTI to host annual DECA Prom Fashion Show
Students to model prom looks provided by Le Femme Boutique, Men’s Wearhouse

SCHNECKSVILLE, Pa. | Lehigh Career & Technical Institute is hosting the sixth annual DECA Prom Fashion Show on Friday. Sponsored by Le Femme Boutique and Men’s Wearhouse, the event will feature the hottest looks of prom season 2019.

WHO: About 30 members of DECA, a career and technical student organization, are slated to walk in the fashion show for an audience of their fellow students and school staff. The models will include students from William Allen, Louis E. Dieruff, Catasauqua Emmaus, Parkland, Southern Lehigh and Whitehall high schools.

Web Design/Web Programming teacher Joe Peregrin is set to serve as the event emcee. Marketing & Business Education teacher Cyndee Barkley is LCTI’s DECA advisor, and was recently named Pennsylvania DECA Advisor of the Year.

WHAT: Students will model prom gowns provided by Le Femme Boutique, of Allentown, and suits or tuxedos provided by Men’s Wearhouse, of Whitehall Township.

WHEN: Friday, March 22
12:45-1:15 p.m. — Event setup/staff and students will be available for interviews
1:15-2:00 p.m. — Fashion show
2:00-2:30 p.m. — Event breakdown/staff and students will be available for interviews
