FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 28, Year

LCTI students among top finishers at DECA competition
Nine qualified for International Career Development Conference

HERSHEY, Pa. | Nine Lehigh Career & Technical Institute students qualified for the next round of competition with top finishes last month at the Pennsylvania DECA Career Development Conference.

More than 40 of LCTI's DECA members participated in the annual event, held Feb. 22-24. The school's DECA members include Advertising Design/Commercial Art, Marketing & Business Education and Supply Chain Management & Logistics Technology students, among others.

Thanks to their performances at the state contest, the following students will have an opportunity to compete this summer during the DECA International Career Development Conference in Anaheim, Calif.

School-Based Enterprise Team
Kevin Hedrick, Emmaus High School
Laurie Slagle, Emmaus
Breanna Stalsitz, Southern Lehigh High School
Skarlin Paulino-Holguin, Whitehall High School

Material Handling Logistics
Jacqueline Fox, Emmaus

PA DECA Plan of Action
Agostina Sanchez-Arias, Emmaus
Celine Colon, Whitehall

DECA Membership
Jasiah Roy, Emmaus

PA DECA Executive Council Member
Dylan Gino, Catasauqua High School

###
About Lehigh Career & Technical Institute
Lehigh Career & Technical Institute is Pennsylvania’s largest career and technical school. Founded in 1971, LCTI each year provides more than 45 skills-based programs of study, as well as academic instruction for about 2,700 students from 10 of Lehigh County’s public high schools. LCTI also offers industry-relevant training and credentials for adults working in the Lehigh Valley and beyond. The school’s state-of-the-art facilities encompass 450,000 square feet on a 47-acre campus in the Schnecksville section of North Whitehall Township. Visit lcti.org for more information about LCTI.