LCTI to host town hall during national education summit
Lehigh Valley business leaders to discuss logistics, supply chain management

SCHNECKSVILLE, Pa. | Lehigh Career & Technical Institute is hosting the MHI CTE Educators Summit from Monday, July 11 to Friday, July 15. High school and college educators from all over the country are gathering in the Lehigh Valley to attend the summit, which is sponsored by MHI, the nation’s largest material handling, logistics and supply chain association.

Summit attendees will spend the week learning about the latest instructional materials, teaching techniques and partnership opportunities in the area of material handling, logistics, and supply chain management. They’ll also visit several of the region’s manufacturing and warehousing facilities, including Martin Guitar in Upper Nazareth Township and Ocean Spray in Upper Macungie Township.

On Wednesday, July 13, educators are slated to tour LCTI’s Distribution Center, a fully operational, student-run facility, and participate in a town hall meeting featuring Lehigh Valley business leaders. Members of the media are invited to attend the tour and town hall meeting.
